News Headlines

There is no denying the fact that reading news paper is a tried and tested way of improving one's language. A newspaper has various kinds of news items covering areas such as politics, sports, business, entertainment, advertisements, notices, articles, letters to the editor etc and hence is a very rich source of vocabulary. The language used in news headlines is made compact by using non-finite verbs, phrases and passive structures in order to provide maximum information using minimum number of words in an impressive way. The news headlines are often catchy and spicy to attract the readers' attention.

Match the following News Headlines with their respective Explanations.

News Headline	Explanation
(i) Adampur shivers at 1.5° Celsius	A Punjab police sub-inspector (SI) was found shot dead at Jandiala Town police post, 15 km from the district headquarters, on Monday morning.

(iii) 40,000 Acres encroached upon in Haryana villages	Ahead of Christmas and New Year when thousands of tourists throng Shimla, the queen of hills is grappling with water shortage.
(iv) Police firing unprovoked: SIT	Cold waves sweeping most parts of Punjab and Haryana for the past few days continued unabated with the minimum temperatures hovering below normal limits at most place on Wednesday.
(v) Football gives Kashmir much -needed respite from violence	Investigators have found an Uttar Pradesh Police constable guilty of unprovoked firing that left a 38-year-old executive with an American multinational tech firm dead in Lucknow on September 29.
(vi) Sub-inspector Found Dead in Jandiala	Around 40,000 acres of panchayat land has been illegally encroached upon by private persons, a report submitted by the government in Punjab and Haryana court reveals.
(vii) Ahead of Christmas, Shimla grapples with water shortage	The state vigilance bureau (VB) on Tuesday assessed the property of Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) leader Dyal Singh Kolianwali, who was booked in a disproportionate assets case.

Interpreting and Explaining News Headlines

Since news headlines are written in pithy and compressed language they often employ tense or the verb forms different from the ones used in the explanation. Therefore, it is important to identify the verb form or the tense used in the headline, understand its correct meaning and explain the news item using appropriate tense. Read the table given below to understand the use of different tenses and verb forms for news headlines and their explanation.

News Headline	Tense or Verb Form used in the news headline	Explanation
